In the spaces between sun rays, write or draw things you are good at or positive things about you.

If you are making a collage, you could cut this out and add a sun!