Write or draw important people in your life in or around these roots to remind you who has helped you grow closer to God.

If you are making a collage, cut these out and add them to the tree.