Our hopes grow and change, right along with the rest of us.
Write or draw what you hope for in the future on some leaves.

If you are making a collage, cut these out and add some leaves, blowing around the tree.