Imagine what the world would be like if we work together.
Draw your picture of a better world, then cut it out to make a puzzle.

Maybe you could write or draw things on the back that will make it hard to put this future dream together, and pray about them.